HOW THE FOOD BANK HELPS

Each year 5 million pounds of emergency food is distributed from The Food Bank of Waterloo Region to neighbours in our community through more than 80 member agencies and community food programs including:

Emergency Food Hamper programs provide canned, fresh and frozen food. Hampers provide food for approximately 3 days.

Community Meals programs provide breakfast, lunch or dinner served at various locations in the region.

Residential programs include crisis transition and long term shelters. They provide support and food nourishment for individuals.

WHO NEEDS OUR HELP?

More than 31,000 men, women and children received food assistance last year in Waterloo Region.

People seek food assistance because of unexpected job loss, physical or mental health concerns, or other crises.

40% of households seeking assistance are families with children.

Our Mission

Through community partnerships we obtain and distribute emergency food from our neighbours for our neighbours.

Our Vision

To channel our community's energy so no one goes hungry.
